Greetings CSI Families!

Our sophomore students held our CSI ComiCon this past Wednesday and it was a huge success. Family, friends and third graders from across the district had a great time visiting the different booths and seeing all the superheroes.

Don't forget we are holding a Kiwanis canned food drive through December 6th. Please take a moment to clean out your pantries and spread some joy to others in the community this season.

The winner of our CSI logo design contest has been decided and we have new CSI swag for purchase. Ordering information can be found on the next page.

Summer Camps and Other Opportunities Continued

Parents, many of you have been requesting information regarding scholarship sites. Both goingmerry.com and fastweb.com are free and provide scholarships matched to your child’s profile. Your child will complete an online profile with each site and be provided with a list of scholarship he/she qualifies for. Check this website out as it has links to multiple scholarships for all the various grade levels:

Any students interested in transportation design, fashion accessories design, or product design? Center for Creative Studies offers the opportunity to earn a full scholarship to CCS’s precollege summer experience. This experience includes three weeks of faculty-led studio classes, three transferable college credits, materials, housing, food and activities. For more information and to submit your entry, visit collegeforcreativestudies.edu/competitions.

Juniors and seniors interested in pursuing an education in the visual and related arts should strongly consider attending National Portfolio Day. Representatives from accredited colleges will be on hand to review your artwork, discuss their programs, and answer questions about professional careers in art. Check out this website for more information as well as dates and locations.
